

Where is that Info

Some contractors track the technical information in the newsletter. Newsletters through 2016 are available on the ASCC web site. The tables provided show the topics from past newsletters, making it easier to find a subject. Here is a link to view each article <http://asconline.org/concrete-technical-resources/newsletter-articles> Happy Hunting!

2019	TOPIC
October	Laser Scanning for F-numbers: A Caution for Specification Compliance
September	Be a Resource; ASCC Has Your Back
July/August	CPC Assists ACI-ASCC 310 to Create Specification for Polished Concrete
June	It's Official: Shotcrete Included in ACI 318-19 Building Code
May	ACI Technical Committee Update
April	Contractors Needed on ACI Committees
March	ACI Code Change Proposal for Tolerances in IBC 2018
January/February	Comment on New ACI 318 to be Published in 2019

2018	TOPIC
December	ASCC Hosts Second Laser Scanning Workshop for Concrete Construction Tolerance
November	Get in Touch with the Constructability Column
October	ASCC Laser Scanning Study Completed in San Francisco
September	Expanded Joint Flooring Presenters Selected
August	Fast Track: From May Technical Committee Mtg. to Sept. ACI Publication
July	On-Line Learning Opportunities
June	A Look at the Effects of Nonstandard Cylinder Strength Testing
May	Technical Committee News from Committee Week
April	ACI-ASCC 117 Tolerance Data Needs Your DATA
March	Watch Your Back Charges
February	ASCC Laser Scanning Workshop a Success
January	ASCC Hosts Laser Scanning Workshop on Concrete Construction Tolerances

2017	TOPIC
December	Protecting Early-Age Concrete from Multiple Freeze-Thaw Cycles during Construction
November	Update to WWR Tolerance Question from October 2010
October	Concrete Polishing Council (CPC) Pushes Ahead
September	Rain, Rain Stay Away from Fresh Concrete
August	Roman Concrete is NOT Better Than Today's Concrete
July	ACI 134, New Constructability Committee
June	Movements that Affect Tolerance Measurements
May	Technical Committee Works Hard at ASCC Committee Days
April	Happenings at ACI in Detroit
March	Understanding ACI Document Jargon
February	What's Wrong with my Concrete?

2016	TOPIC
December	ASCC Sponsoring Finisher Certification at World of Concrete 2017
November	"Pre-construction Checklist for Concrete Slabs to be Polished" Under Development
October	Does Your Concrete Bleed? Consider a New Provision in ACI 301-16
September	Consider Excluding Formed Concrete Surface Specifications in Your Bid
August	New Publications Highlight Concrete Construction
July	Beware of Structural Designs that Use Reinforcing Steel for Shrinkage and Temperature Crack Control
June	Concrete Slabs Under Operable Partitions
May	Rounding for Specification Compliance – When is 24.88 equal to 25?
April	How To Join an ACI Technical Committee
March	ASCC Hotline from the Beginning to Now – the 30 years of Ward R. Malisch
February	Rethinking Effects of Time and Construction Procedures on Compliance with Construction Tolerances
January	Concrete Finishing Activities at World of Concrete 2016